CALHOUN COUNTY, Mich. (NEWSCHANNEL 3) - There is a ceremony Friday morning in Calhoun County to mark a milestone in construction of the Firekeepers Casino.

Members of the Nottawaseppi Huron Band of Potawatomi will sign the last steel structural beam before it's put into place.

The ceremony is at 10 o'clock.

Once completed the casino will employ around 1,500 people. It's set to open next summer.
